

March Bonus Quiz

As a follow-up challenge to the March scenario dealing with Stand at Ease and the motion to Recess, here's a question about the use of the gavel as part of these two procedures. Before you check out RONR 11th (p.232, l.31) for the correct answer, see if you know when the gavel may be used - if desired - by the presiding officer:

- A. when allowing the assembly to Stand at Ease
- B. when calling the meeting back to order after Standing at Ease
- C. when Recessing a meeting
- D. when calling the meeting back to order following a Recess
- E. all of the above
- F. none of the above
