

STANDARDS FOR REGISTERED PARLIAMENTARIAN

MOTIONS IN GENERAL

It is essential for a registered parliamentarian to have very detailed knowledge about motions that are commonly used and to have the ability to rapidly access the appropriate information for motions that are not used often. These references provide guidance for a candidate for registered parliamentarian to know all the material that will be required in the performance of his/her work advising clients for ordinary meeting.

Competencies:

- Use main, subsidiary, privileged, incidental motions, and motions that bring a question again before the assembly.
- Use parliamentary terminology and language appropriately.

Performance Expectations

- 1 3 1.1 Explain the purpose of any motion listed in RONR (12th ed.) 6:5, 6:12, 6:17, and 6:26 or RONRIB (3rd ed.) Chapter 14.
- 1 1.2 Identify the name(s) of the appropriate motion(s) used for a given purpose, as described in RONR (12th ed.) 6:5, 6:12, 6:17, and 6:26 or RONRIB (3rd ed.) Chapter 14).
- 1 1.3 Know and recall the meaning of the classes of motions listed in RONR (12th ed.) 5:2 as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 6:1–3, 6:9, 6:11, 6:13, 6:15–16, 6:23, 6:25, 10:1–2, first sentence of 10:3, 10:4, and 10:52–57. New RONR 12th ed. material in 10:54–55 deals with ratification in the context of invalidly conducted electronic meetings.
- 1 2 1.4 Relate the concepts of “secondary motions,” “pending,” “immediately pending,” “taking precedence,” and “yielding” to the order of precedence of motions as explained in RONRIB (3rd ed.) Chapter 12D (pp. 103-106) and RONR (12th ed.) 4:64, 5:1–13, 6:18–22, and 10:31–34.
- 1 3 1.5 Relate the concepts of “secondary motions,” “pending,” “immediately pending,” “taking precedence,” and “yielding” to the order of precedence of motions as explained in RONRIB (3rd ed.) Chapter 12D (pp. 103-106) and RONR (12th Ed.) 4:64, 5:1–13, 6:18–22, and 10:31–34.
- 1 2 1.6 Understand and describe the concept of a motion that adheres to other motions as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 10:35.
- 1 3 1.7 Employ Chart I in RONR (12th ed.) t3-t5 to determine the precedence of other subsidiary and privileged motions. (C)
- 1 3 1.8 Know and apply the order of precedence of the ranking motions as given in RONR (12th ed.) t4.
- 1 2
3 1.9 Employ the standard descriptive characteristics of individual motions and Tables II and IV through VII in the RONR (12th ed.) “t” pages to quickly look up the information they provide, as explained in RONRIB (3rd ed.) Chapter 12 E & F (pp. 106-108) and in RONR (12th ed.) 7:1–4. (C)
- 1 2
3 1.10 Employ Table III in the RONR (12th ed.) “t” pages to provide advice regarding the proper form for making motions. (C)

MAIN MOTION

The main motion brings business before the assembly. A candidate for registered parliamentarian must know important rules applying to main motions. This is a critical first step in understanding how associations should conduct business in meetings.

Competencies:

- Use main, subsidiary, privileged, incidental motions, and motions that bring a question again before the assembly.
- Serve as a parliamentarian in meetings.

Performance Expectations

-   2.1 Know and apply the standard descriptive characteristics of main motions found in RONR (12th ed.) 10:8 (excluding #8).
-   2.2 Identify, when applicable, the prohibitions or limitations on main motions to reaffirm, to refrain, and that contain negative statements under RONR (12th ed.) 10:10–12.
-  2.3 Research and employ the instructions in RONR (12th ed.) 10:13–24 to assist in the proper or recommended framing of resolutions and orders, or similar long or complicated main motions. (C)
-    2.4 Understand and apply the rules relating to modification of a main motion by its maker before or after it has been stated by the chair as found in RONR (12th Ed.) 10:30(1–2).
-   2.5 Explain to beginners, organization members, or the public the meaning of a main motion as described in RONRIB (3rd ed.) Chapter 3A, p. 19, and the five means by which a change may be made in a main motion before the vote on its adoption as outlined in RONR (12th ed.) 10:30(1–5).

SUBSIDIARY AND PRIVILEGED MOTIONS

The subsidiary and privileged motions are often called the “ranking motions” because a parliamentarian must know which of these motions are in order based on their rank in the hierarchy. These performance expectations provide all the information that a candidate for registered parliamentarian should have at instant readiness to assist organizations quickly, efficiently, and correctly. Although all subsidiary and privileged motions are important, the registered parliamentarian is to focus on the following ranking motions: Amend, Commit/Refer, Postpone Definitely, Limit/Extend Limits of Debate, Previous Question, Recess, and Adjourn.

Competencies:

- Use main, subsidiary, privileged, incidental motions, and motions that bring a question again before the assembly.
- Serve as a parliamentarian in meetings.

Performance Expectations: Amend

-   3.1 Explain to beginners, organization members, or the public the basic process and rules governing primary amendments to the extent set forth in RONRIB (3rd ed.) Chapter 5.
-   3.2 Know and apply the rules for the motion Amend in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 12:7(3–7).
-   3.3 Recognize and know how to advise the chair in the use of and define the proper terms for amendments given in RONR (12th ed.) 12:8–11, and the first sentence of 12:12. including footnotes).
-   3.4 Understand and explain the prohibition on third degree amendments and the way of accomplishing the same purpose described in RONR (12th ed.) 12:7(6), and second and third sentences of 12:12.
-    3.5 Understand and apply the rules concerning the use of one motion to offer multiple amendments and governing conforming amendments given in RONR (12th ed.) 12:14–15. These paragraphs are new in the 12th edition.
-   3.6 Apply the rules defining germaneness in RONR (12th ed.) 12:16–21 to amendments that are clearly germane or clearly not germane.
-   3.7 Apply the rules identifying improper amendments in RONR (12th ed.) 12:22.
-   3.8 Apply the rule governing amendments to a preamble in RONR (12th ed.) 12:23.
-   3.9 Explain to chairs, beginners, organization members, or the public the principle concerning amendments that raise the same question of content and effect of which many rules governing different forms of amendment are an application that is described in RONR (12th ed.) 12:25 12th ed. change in this paragraph.
-   3.10 Apply the basic rules governing the different forms of amendment found in RONR (12th ed.) 12:26 and 12:30 (insert or add words); first sentence of 12:31 (insert or add paragraphs); 12:46–47 (new 12th ed. Language that might be tested), 12:49, and 12:50 (strike out words); 12:56–62, 12:65–66 (strike out and insert words); 12:69, and first two sentences of 12:70 (substitute).
-   3.11 Apply the rules concerning so-called “friendly amendments” and cases in which the maker of the main motion “accepts” an amendment stated in RONR (12th ed.) 12:91.
-    3.12 Explain and employ how the chair states and puts the question and announces the result on amendments as described in RONR (12th ed.) 12:33–40 and with the option of using unanimous consent as described in RONR (12th ed.) 12:91.
-   3.13 Know and recall the basic nature of and procedure for filling blanks as described in RONR (12th ed.) 12:92–94 The 12th edition includes significant additions to RONR’s rules regarding filling blanks. Especially applicable to RP candidates is 12:94, which summarizes the “basic procedure for filling blanks.”

- ▲ 3.14 Understand the cases adapted to filling blanks as described in the last sentence of RONR (12th ed.) 12:93.

Performance Expectations: Commit or Refer

- ▲ 3 3.15 Understand and describe the difference between the main and subsidiary motions to Commit explained in RONR (12th ed.) 13:6, and 51:33n9.
- ▲ 3 3.16 Apply the rules relating to adhering motions with reference to Commit as described in RONR (12th ed.) 13:7(2) portion of first sentence through first semi-colon(;) and last sentence, as well as 13:19 except last sentence More specifics in 12th ed.
- ▲ 3 3.17 Know and apply the rules for the motion Commit in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 13:7(3–7).

Performance Expectations: Postpone Definitely

- ▲ 3 3.18 Understand and describe the difference between the main and subsidiary motions to Postpone Definitely explained in RONR (12th ed.) 14:1 and 14:3.
- ▲ 3 3.19 Apply the rules relating to adhering motions with reference to Postpone Definitely as described in RONR (12th ed.) 14:4(2), second to last sentence, 14:19 This paragraph has been rewritten in the 12th edition.
- ▲ 3 3.20 Know and apply the rules for the motion Postpone Definitely in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 14:4(3–7).
- ▲ 3 3.21 Apply the limits on the time to which a question can be postponed as described in RONR (12th ed.) 14:5–6.
- ▲ 3 3.22 Understand and apply the basic concept of using Postpone Definitely to create a special order as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 14:2, 14:13–15, 14:17 (coverage of Postpone Definitely's relation to orders of the day has been substantially revised in the 12th edition), and 14:20(d–e).

Performance Expectations: Limit/Extend Limits of Debate

- ▲ 3 3.23 Understand and describe the basic difference between (1) limiting or extending the number or length of speeches and (2) requiring after a specified length of time or at a certain hour debate is to be closed as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 15:2.
- ▲ 3.24 Understand and define the meaning, in the context of Limit or Extend Limits of Debate, of the terms “order” and “exhausted” described in RONR (12th ed.) 15:3.
- ▲ 3 3.25 Know and apply the rules for the motion Limit or Extend Limits of Debate in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 15:5(3–7).
- 2 3 3.26 Explain to chairs, beginners, organization members, or the public the circumstances under which Limit or Extend Limits of Debate can apply to debate on one or on a series of motions as described in RONR (12th ed.) 15:5(2) first three sentences, 15:7–8 The relevant passage has been revised, and a new rule added, in the 12th edition.
- ▲ 3 3.27 Know and explain how a later motion to Limit or Extend Limits of Debate is in order and can supersede an earlier one as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 15:17 The relevant paragraph has been slightly rewritten in the 12th edition.

Performance Expectations: Previous Question

- ▲ 3 3.28 Understand and interpret the effect of adopting Previous Question, including which motions the subsequent making of which it does and does not preclude, as described in RONR (12th ed.) 16:2.

- 2 3 3.29 Explain to chairs, beginners, organization members, or the public how a motion for the Previous Question can be moved 1) to apply only to the immediately pending question, 2) to apply to all pending questions, or 3) to apply to the immediately pending question and a specified set of a consecutive series of pending questions as described in RONR (12th ed.) 16:5–2 except the third and last sentences; also explain how when one of these alternatives is moved, other alternatives can be moved before a vote is taken, and the sequence in which such votes occur as described in RONR (12th ed.) 16:5(6).
- 1 3 3.30 Know and apply the rules for the motion Previous Question in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 5 and 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 16:5(3–5, 7).
- 1 3 3.31 Recognize, and know how to advise the chair to deal with, nonstandard or inappropriate attempts to accomplish the effect of adopting the Previous Question described in RONR (12th ed.) 16:6–7 The 12th edition adds additional examples of nonstandard ways of moving the Previous Question.
- 1 2 3 3.32 Understand and define the meaning, in the context of Previous Question, of the terms “partly executed” and “fully executed” as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 16:5(8)n15.
- 1 2 3.33 Understand and describe the effect on subsequent motions of an unexhausted order for the Previous Question as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 16:18–19.

Performance Expectations: Recess

- 1 3 3.34 Know and describe the difference between Recess and Stand at Ease as described in RONR (12th ed.) 8:2(3–4).
- 1 3 3.35 Understand and explain the meaning of recess given in RONR (12th ed.) 20:1, and the difference between recess and adjourn as described in RONR (12th ed.) 8:7.
- 1 2 3 3.36 Understand and explain the difference between the main and privileged motions to Recess explained in RONR (12th ed.) 20:2–3.
- 1 3 3.37 Know and apply the rules for the motion Recess in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 20:5(3-7).
- 1 3 3.38 Know and use the rules for declaring and postponing a scheduled recess in RONR (12th ed.) 20:6–7.

Performance Expectations: Adjourn

- 1 3.39 Understand and define the meaning of adjourn given in RONR (12th ed.) 21:1.
- 1 3 3.40 Recognize and assess the unique quality that Adjourn may be privileged even when no question is pending as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 21:2.
- 1 2 3 3.41 Describe the three characteristics that differentiate the main from the privileged motion to Adjourn given in RONR (12th ed.) 21:3&n4 (including the footnote), and the effect when Adjourn is not privileged described in RONR (12th ed.) 21:3, last two sentences.
- 1 3 3.42 Know and apply the rules for the motion Adjourn in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 21:6(3–7).
- 1 2 3 3.43 Describe what is in order before the chair may declare a directed adjournment, as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 21:10–12.
- 2 3 3.44 Explain how to declare or set aside a scheduled adjournment as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 21:14–15, and 8:9–10.

INCIDENTAL MOTIONS

Incidental motions arise out of the consideration of other motions. They are motions that usually must be decided immediately before business can proceed. Although all incidental motions are important, a candidate for registered parliamentarian is to focus on the following ranking motions: Point of Order, Appeal, Suspend the Rules, Parliamentary Inquiry, and Request for Information.

Competencies:

- Use main, subsidiary, privileged, incidental motions, and motions that bring a question again before the assembly.
- Serve as a parliamentarian in meetings.

Performance Expectations: Point of Order

- 1 3 4.1 Know and apply the rules for the motion Point of Order in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 23:2(3–7).
- 1 3 4.2 Describe and employ the basic purpose of, and procedure for handling, a Point of Order, as described in RONR (12th ed.) 23:3–4, and 23:12–17.
- 1 2 3 4.3 Explain the timeliness requirements of Point of Order as described in RONR (12th ed.) 23:5, and recognize that exceptions exist to this general rule.
- 1 3 4.4 Rapidly research and apply the exceptions to the timeliness requirement for a Point of Order given in RONR (12th ed.) 23:6. (C)
- 2 3 4.5 Understand and summarize how rulings on Points of Order create precedents (rewritten in 12th ed.) as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 23:10.
- 2 3 4.6 Explain the precedential nature of a ruling on a Point of Order and how to supersede it, as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 23:10–11.

Performance Expectations: Appeal

- 1 3 4.7 Know and explain the two exceptions to the right to Appeal given in RONR (12th ed.) 24:3(2)(a–b).
- 1 3 4.8 Know and apply the rules for the motion Appeal in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 24:3(3–7), including memorizing the three cases in which an appeal is undebatable in RONR (12th ed.) 24:3(5)(first sentence). Also know the requirement for timeliness of an appeal in RONR (12th ed.) 24:8 This requirement was included in SDC in the 11th edition, but moved to paragraph 24:8 in the 12th.
- 1 3 4.9 Understand and explain the distinction between rulings that can be appealed and opinions and judgments that cannot be appealed as described in RONR (12th ed.) 24:5–7, and 24:7n4.
- 1 3 4.10 Recognize and know how to advise the chair on the procedure for handling an appeal as illustrated in RONR (12th ed.) 24:9–13.

Performance Expectations: Suspend the Rules

- 1 4.11 Understand and identify the seven categories of rules that cannot be suspended. In RONR (12th ed.) 25:7–13 12th ed. changes in these paragraphs.
- 3 4.12 Rapidly research and apply the detailed provisions applying the prohibition on suspending seven categories of rules explained in RONR (12th ed.) 25:7–13. (C)
- 1 3 4.13 Know and apply the rules for the motion Suspend the Rules in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 25:2(3–7) and the differences in the vote required explained in RONR (12th ed.) 25:14–16.
- 1 2 3 4.14 Understand and define the purpose and manner of suspending the rules as described in RONR (12th ed.) 25:3–5 and illustrated in RONR (12th ed.) 25:17–20.

Performance Expectations: Parliamentary Inquiry

- 1 3 4.15 Know and apply the rules for the motion Parliamentary Inquiry in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 33:2(3–7).

-   4.16 Understand the purpose and apply the procedure for making and handling a Parliamentary Inquiry as given in RONR (12th ed.) 33:3–5.

Performance Expectations: Request for Information

-   4.17 Recognize and know how to advise and assist the chair on preventing members from misusing Request for Information to give information, thus improperly obtaining preference in recognition in order effectively to debate. RONRIB (3rd ed.) p. 95n2.

-   4.18 Know and apply the rules in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 33:2(3–7) as they pertain to Request for Information.
-   4.19 Understand the purpose and apply the procedure for making and handling a Request for Information as given in RONR (12th ed.) 33:6–10.

MOTIONS THAT BRING A QUESTION AGAIN BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY

If the assembly needs to make a different decision than one already made on an issue, these motions are used to accomplish that goal. These motions afford the opportunity to reopen a completed motion, a motion temporarily disposed of, or to change something previously adopted and still in effect. Since many organizations find themselves in a situation where they have either changed their mind or made a decision hastily, a candidate for registered parliamentarian must know how to deal with these motions. Although all these motions are important, a candidate for registered parliamentarian is to focus on Rescind/Amend Something Previously Adopted and Reconsider.

Competencies:

- Use main, subsidiary, privileged, incidental motions, and motions that bring a question again before the assembly.
- Serve as a parliamentarian in meetings.

Performance Expectations: Rescind/Amend Something Previously Adopted

- 1 3 5.1 Understand and define the purpose and effect of Rescind/Amend Something Previously Adopted as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 35:1.
- 1 3 5.2 Know and apply the rules for the motion Rescind/Amend Something Previously Adopted in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 5 in RONR (12th ed.) 35:2(3–5).
- 1 3 5.3 Rapidly research and apply the rules in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 6 and 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 35:2(6–7). (C)
- 1 2
3 5.4 Apply the procedure for giving previous notice of and making motions to Rescind or Amend Something Previously Adopted as illustrated in RONR (12th ed.) 35:3, 35:7–12.
- 1 2
3 5.5 Understand and apply the rules concerning the use of one motion to Amend Something Previously Adopted to offer multiple amendments and governing conforming amendments given in RONR (12th ed.) 35.5 (this paragraph is new in the 12th ed.), including the rules it references governing whether and how such a motion may be divided in RONR (12th ed.) 10:25, 27:5 and the example in RONR (12th ed.) 57:3.”

Performance Expectations: Reconsider The section on Reconsider was substantially revised in the 12th edition. Among other things, a comparatively brief summary of the basic purpose and procedure was put at its outset.

- 1 2
3 5.6 Understand and explain the basic purpose and procedure of reconsideration as described in RONRIB (3rd ed.) pp. 58-60 and RONR (12th ed.) 37:1–8, and 37:9(1)(a).
- 1 2
3 5.7 Understand and explain the procedure to reconsider a main motion when made at a time when it can immediately be taken up as set forth in RONR (12th ed.) 37:14 and as illustrated in RONR (12th ed.) 37:36(a), and 37:37–39.
- 1 3 5.8 Know and describe when Reconsider cannot be applied to a motion as set forth in RONR (12th ed.) 37:9(2)(a–h) (12th edition changes in this paragraph) and 37:13.
- 1 3 5.9 Understand the circumstances under which Reconsider cannot be taken up at the time it is made and the procedure followed in such a case as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 37:9(1), 37:10(b–c) (12th ed. has additional rule in last sentence of (b)), and 37:15–17(12th ed. change in 37:15), and the illustration in RONR (12th ed.) 37:40–42, and 37:44–45.

-  5.10 Know and apply the rules for the motion Reconsider in Standard Descriptive Characteristics 3 through 7 in RONR (12th ed.) 37:9(3–7).
-  5.11 Apply the rules that suspend the effect of a motion sought to be reconsidered when Reconsider is moved at a time when it cannot immediately be taken up in RONR (12th ed.) 37:11–12 Somewhat changed rules for 12th ed.
-  5.12 Know and apply the rules governing debate both on the motion to Reconsider and after a motion to Reconsider has been adopted as described in RONR (12th ed.) 37:18–23.

ORGANIZATION AND CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Including such aspects as establishing the quorum, creating the agenda, and conducting debate, these are the rules that keep meetings fair and on target. There are certain things that must be done in order to prepare for and conduct any type of meeting. A candidate for registered parliamentarian must understand the basics for organizing and conducting meetings.

Competencies:

- Use parliamentary rules to organize the business of meetings.
- Use parliamentary terminology and language appropriately.
- Serve as a parliamentarian in meetings.
- Consult with clients.

Performance Expectations: Quorum

- ▲ 6.1 Explain the basic need for and effect of a quorum requirement described in RONRIB (3rd ed.) pp. 12-13.
- ▲ 3 6.2 Know and describe the default quorum when membership can be accurately determined as set forth in RONR (12th ed.) 3:3 (last sentence).
- ▲ 2 3 6.3 Understand and explain what may be done even in the absence of a quorum as described in RONR (12th ed.) 40:6–10.

Performance Expectations: Standard Order of Business

- ▲ 6.4 Define the meanings of “order of business,” “orders of the day,” and “agenda,” as well as the two meanings of “program,” given in RONR (12th ed.) 41:1–4 (including 41:2n2).
- ▲ 6.5 Know and identify the names and order of the six basic headings in the standard order of business in RONR (12th ed.) 41:5.
- ▲ 6.6 Know and identify in which organizations the standard order of business is used as explained in RONR (12th ed.) , 41:6.
- 6.7 Be able to prepare, or assist the secretary to prepare, a memorandum of the order of business as explained in RONRIB (3rd ed.) pp. 146-47 and RONR (12th ed.) 41:7. (C)
- 6.8 Write a script for a presiding officer using the standard order of business, while referencing RONRIB (3rd ed.) Table C (p. 209) and RONR (12th ed.) 41:8–27. (C)
- ▲ 3 6.9 Know and explain how business may be taken up out of its proper order as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 41:37–39.

Performance Expectation: Orders of the Day

- 3 6.10 Explain to chairs, beginners, organization members, or the public the meaning of and basic rules governing general and special orders as set forth in RONR (12th ed.) 14:13–17 The passage has been substantially shortened and rewritten in the 12th edition.

Performance Expectation: Agenda

- ▲ 6.11 Understand and identify the nature of an agenda, when it is commonly used, the procedure for adopting and changing it, and the effect of providing one in advance as described in RONR (12th ed.) 41:60–64.

Performance Expectations: Minutes

- 3 6.12 Explain the secretary’s duty to record motions as described in RONRIB (3rd ed.) pp. 148-53 as well as to note the times of a meeting’s beginning and end.
- 6.13 Write draft basic minutes as described in RONRIB (3rd ed.) pp. 146-50. (C)
- ▲ 3 6.14 Know and employ the usual procedure for correcting and approving minutes described in RONR (12th ed.) 41:9–12 (including 41:11n -New rule in 12th ed.). Know and apply the rules stated in RONR (12th ed.) 48:2 & 48.3 (New in 12th ed.) regarding varying the standard content of minutes.

Performance Expectations: Recognition, Assignment of the Floor, and Interruption

- ▲ 3 6.15 Know and employ the basic procedure for recognizing a member and assigning the floor, and the three most common cases of preference in recognition as explained in RONR (12th ed.) 3:30–34.
- ▲ 3 6.16 Understand and explain the concept of interrupting a member assigned the floor described in RONR (12th ed.) 42:18 (introductory wording before (a)) and 42:20–22.
- ▲ 3 6.17 Understand and explain the common cases in which interrupting a member assigned the floor is permitted given in RONR (12th ed.) 42:18(b, c, e, f, & h).
- 3 6.18 Rapidly research and determine whether interruption of a member assigned the floor is permitted in a particular case using Table II in the “t” pages of RONR (12th ed.) . (C)

Performance Expectations: Handling Motions

- ▲ 6.19 Know the basic procedure and memorize the standard language used in the six steps for handling a motion given in RONRIB (3rd ed.) pp. 23-27..
- 3 6.20 Demonstrate how to assist a presiding officer to employ the terminology used to handle motions used in the RONRIB (3rd ed.) tables through use of resources such as the tables in RONRIB (3rd ed.) , motion scripts, or cards/pages. (C)
