Nebraska and the Grand Island Electronic Unit
Presents
Professional Responsibility for Parliamentarians Worldwide

Steve Glanstein, PRP and Rachel Glanstein, PRP will present this informative and interactive workshop. The workshop will provide the background, authority, and scenarios for the Code of Professional Responsibility (COPR) for Parliamentarians. It will include real-life issues and challenges as well as offering an opportunity for attendees to analyze these situations as they relate to the COPR.

Monday

January 12, 2026

7-9 p.m. CST

The Nebraska and Grand Island Electronic Unit have requested 2.0 CEU credits for RP and PRP members. Your camera must remain on to receive credit. Send advanced workshop registration, NAP member number, credential information, and phone number to olson.sandy@gmail.com. Space is limited.